El viaje de Toffee · Sección 1 (versión 2.1)

14 episodios + 13 videos de viralización · 27 de octubre al 22 de noviembre de 2026 · episodio día de por medio

Qué cambió frente a la versión 1

1. Primeros segundos: cada episodio empieza con su toma GANCHO ⭐ y una promesa clara arriba.
2. Historias más simples: un conflicto entendible y una recompensa por episodio. Cada toma tiene una sola función (inicio, desarrollo, obstáculo, recompensa, continuación).
3. Personalidades definidas: Toffee antihéroe sarcástico con buen corazón; Galleta impulsivo, curioso y a veces el más listo, con 7 expresiones fijas.
4. Ritmo (2.1): un episodio día de por medio y, en cada día intermedio, un video de viralización (14 listos en el capítulo 5). Comerciales y fotos como segunda publicación opcional. Halloween se resume en 3 cascabeles y 4 episodios; se quitaron el mercado de las brujas y las escenas que no aportaban.
5. Productos con transparencia y sin promesas que no podamos probar.
6. Medición semanal con datos y propósito social verificable.

Si ya generaste tomas del vlog 2 viejo: sirven la lechuza aterrizando, la de los cinco cascabeles NO (ahora son tres), la del trineo que no arranca y la del camino de calabazas.

1 · Toffee y Galleta: quiénes son

🐱 Toffee

Arquetipo	El antihéroe con buen corazón: orgulloso, sarcástico, ambicioso, torpe cuando pierde el control y compasivo aunque lo disimule.
Contradicción	Quiere que todos lo admiren, pero lo admirable es que ayuda a otros cuando nadie se lo pide.
Cómo habla	Frases cortas y secas. Nunca dice «estoy preocupado»: dice que «no piensa perder el tiempo» mientras ya está corriendo. También tiene silencios y momentos sinceros (ep. 9 y 14).
Qué NO es	No insulta a nadie sin motivo, no se burla del sufrimiento animal, no ataca personas reales ni grupos, no cambia de personalidad según la moda.

🐶 Galleta

Arquetipo	El corazón del grupo y el agente del caos: curioso, impulsivo, cariñoso, valiente sin pensarlo e inesperadamente astuto.
Contradicción	Parece el menos preparado, pero es el primero en hacer lo correcto (ep. 2, 3, 6, 8, 14).
Cómo «habla»	No habla: actúa con la cara. Siete expresiones fijas: cara de inocente, sonrisa del desastre, mirada a cámara, escondite, súplica, celebración y abrazo. Se repiten para que se vuelvan su sello.
Qué NO es	No es el tonto que siempre arruina todo: en muchos episodios es quien resuelve.

Saludo de Toffee

«A ver, mis desgraciados...» (alternativa más suave: «Bueno, mis criaturas...»). Va en la primera frase que dice en cámara (no en todos los episodios: cuando hay un lugar nuevo).

Frases de Toffee (se repiten para que se vuelvan suyas)

Momento	Frases
Cuando algo sale mal	«¿Quién fue el genio? Ah, fui yo.» · «Excelente. Otra desgracia.» · «Esto no estaba en mis planes.»
Cuando Galleta hace algo	«Galleta, te voy a pedir un favor: piensa.» · «Yo no lo conozco.» · «Galleta no sabía que no sabía.»
Cuando presume	«No es ego si es verdad.» · «La humildad es para los que no tienen talento.» · «El protagonista soy yo.»
Cuando tiene miedo	«Yo no tengo miedo. Estoy evaluando la situación.» · «No es cobardía, es estrategia.» · «Galleta, ve tú primero. Confío plenamente en ti.»
Cuando ayuda	«No lo hice por él. Me estorbaba.» · «Que nadie se entere.» · «No le vayas contando a nadie que tengo sentimientos.»

> Malas palabras: máximo una por episodio y solo cuando sorprenda. Van siempre como voz en off (Flow puede bloquear un prompt con groserías). No uso «maricada»: viene de un insulto y puede leerse como burla a un grupo; se cambia por «bobada». Las fuertes («la puta madre», «jodidos») quedan para momentos puntuales y las marco antes de usarlas.

Las 7 expresiones de Galleta (así van en los prompts)

Expresión	Texto en inglés que va en el prompt
inocente	slowly turns his head away and puts on an innocent face: big round eyes, head slightly tilted, sweet little smile

desastre	a slow mischievous smile spreads on his face, eyebrows raised, eyes fixed on the forbidden thing camara	looks straight into the camera with a knowing, complicit look escondite	hides behind the cat, only his head peeking out, ears back
suplica	makes huge shiny puppy eyes, ears low, looking up, begging
celebra	jumps and wiggles his whole body, celebrating happily
abrazo	gently leans his head against the cat's body, like a hug

La relación

Situación	Toffee	Galleta
Aparece un problema	Se queja y arma un plan complicado	Intenta resolverlo ya
Algo sale mal	Busca a quién culpar	Lo reconoce (aunque él lo causó)
Un animal necesita ayuda	Finge que no le importa... y ayuda	Quiere ayudar desde el inicio
Hay peligro	«Estoy evaluando la situación»	Tiene miedo, pero no abandona a Toffee
Ganan	Se queda con el mérito	Celebra sin importar quién se lleva el crédito

2 · Cómo se arma cada episodio

1. Cada episodio arranca con su toma GANCHO (⭐): el momento más loco o la revelación, aunque pase después en la historia. Dura 2–4 s en la edición.
2. En el primer segundo ya está pasando algo (no presentación, no paisaje vacío). Texto arriba con la promesa y una palabra en color.
3. Después del gancho entra el INICIO: Toffee dice en una frase cuál es el problema.
4. Cada toma tiene una sola función: INICIO, DESARROLLO, OBSTÁCULO, RECOMPENSA o CONTINUACIÓN. Si una toma no cumple ninguna, se quita.
5. La pregunta al público solo va cuando la respuesta puede cambiar o enriquecer la historia (marcada en cada episodio).

INICIO DESARROLLO OBSTÁCULO RECOMPENSA CONTINUACIÓN

4 · Personajes nuevos de esta versión

Don Turbio (el vendedor sospechoso) → guárdalo como TURBIO.jpg

Mapache que aparece en los lugares más raros vendiendo soluciones absurdas. Personaje fijo del universo (como el vendedor de Gnomo, pero nuestro). Habla.

Character reference sheet, 2x2 grid, 1:1, photorealistic, same character in all 4 views (front, 3/4 left, side, back), plain dark city-alley background: a raccoon standing on two legs, gray fur, black eye mask, striped tail, wearing an old beige trench coat with the collar up and a small brown hat, shifty suspicious eyes, holding the coat slightly open showing small strange gadgets hanging inside. Same coat and hat in ALL views. No text.

Ratoncio (el ratón famoso venido a menos) → guárdalo como RATONCIO.jpg

Ratón callejero que se cree celebridad de Hollywood. Original nuestro: SIN orejas negras redondas, SIN guantes blancos, SIN pantaloncito rojo. Habla.

Voces nuevas

Personaje	Cómo crearla
Don Turbio	Voice Design: «A middle-aged Latin American man, raspy and fast-talking street salesman, whispering like he is sharing a secret, sly and funny, Latin American Spanish, close to the microphone.» Prueba: «Psst... gato. ¿Necesitas un mapa? Tengo de todo. Original. Casi.» Guardar como «Turbio».
Ratoncio	Voice Design: «A small man with a squeaky but theatrical voice pretending to be a glamorous movie star, over-the-top, a bit sad underneath, Latin American Spanish.» Prueba: «Son veinte dólares la foto, gato. Soy una estrella... bueno, lo fui.» Guardar como «Ratoncio».

Ya aprobados: Doña Lechuza, Calabacín, Chupacabras, Alebrije, Paca y Chihuahua Enmascarado. Conde Murciélago: falta la medalla lisa.

Episodio 2 · La bruja del bosque

Lun 27-oct | 7 tomas · 48 s

Conflicto: El trineo no vuela y están perdidos en un bosque de noche.
Recompensa: Galleta, sin querer, encuentra el camino (y Toffee se lleva el mérito).
La historia: Los ojos eran de Doña Lechuza, una bruja jubilada. El trineo no vuela: le faltan sus tres cascabeles, que cayeron en el Valle de Octubre, donde siempre es Halloween. Galleta tumba el farol de la lechuza y, sin querer, enciende el camino de calabazas.
Texto arriba: Nos encontró una BRUJA EN EL BOSQUE 🦉
Pregunta al público: ¿Qué monstruo creen que nos espera en el valle?

Vertical 9:16, 6 seconds. Photorealistic smartphone video, normal lens (no fisheye, no vignette, no dark corners), sharp, natural colors, realistic physics. One continuous shot with no cuts. Dark snowy forest at night. Right in front of the camera, Doña Lechuza, the huge old barn owl from the reference (white heart-shaped face, golden-brown speckled feathers, big round golden eyes, tiny round glasses, a small crooked black witch hat, holding a small old lantern) lands on a snowy branch out of the darkness, her golden eyes glowing, and stares down at the camera. The owl says in Latin American Spanish, in an old, raspy, warm grandmother voice: "¡Por fin! Llevo tres siglos esperando visitas." Her beak moves in sync with every word. Exactly one owl for the whole video, identical to the references; no other animals appear. Only the owl speaks, with wind in the background. No phone, no selfie stick, no text, no music.

Medium close-up at eye level: the cream-caramel British Shorthair cat from the reference (chubby, very round face, big green eyes), wearing his navy knitted nightcap with a cream pompom and a small black action camera on top of the nightcap sits in the snow next to the crashed sleigh, unimpressed, looking into the camera. The cat says in Latin American Spanish, in a deep, slow, sleepy male voice: "A ver, mis desgraciados… nos estrellamos. Y nos encontró una bruja." His lips move in sync with every word. Exactly one cat for the whole video, identical to the references; no other animals appear. The cat's whole head, nightcap and camera always in frame. Only the cat speaks, with wind in the background. Vertical 9:16, 8 seconds. Photorealistic smartphone video, normal lens (no fisheye, no vignette, no dark corners), sharp, natural colors, realistic physics. One continuous shot with no cuts. Snowy forest at night, static camera. Wide shot: the red plush sleigh-shaped pet bed from the reference photo (red velvet body, thick white fluffy fur rim, red-and-white candy-cane striped runners, black boot-shaped tips at the front; no legs, no letters or words on it) lies tilted on its side, half buried in deep snow. The cream-caramel British Shorthair cat from the reference (chubby, very round face, big green eyes), wearing his navy knitted nightcap with a cream pompom and a small black action camera on top of the nightcap sits inside at the front and pushes against the front rim with both front paws, straining, but the sleigh does not move at all. On the right, outside the sleigh, the scruffy golden-brown criollo dog from the reference (thin, wiry fur, bushy eyebrows, white chest and paws), wearing only his navy bandana with a gold bone tag (no backpack) bites the white fur rim and pulls backward, his paws sliding in the snow. Both stay in the same place for the whole shot. Exactly one cat and one dog for the whole video, identical to the references; no other animals appear. The cat's whole head, nightcap and camera always in frame. The dog never speaks. No one speaks; only wind and crunching snow. No phone, no selfie stick, no text, no music.

Close-up of Doña Lechuza, the barn owl from the reference with her small crooked witch hat and tiny round glasses, perched on a snowy branch with her wings folded like a real owl, very serious; her old brass lantern stands on the branch next to her feet (she does not hold anything). The owl says in Latin American Spanish, in an old, raspy, warm grandmother voice: "Sin sus tres cascabeles, ese trineo no vuela. Cayeron en el Valle de Octubre." The red plush sleigh-shaped pet bed from the reference photo (red velvet body, thick white fluffy fur rim, red-and-white candy-cane striped runners, black boot-shaped tips at the front; no legs, no letters or words on it) is stuck upside down in the branches; the cream-caramel British Shorthair cat from the reference (chubby, very round face, big green eyes), wearing his navy knitted nightcap with a cream pompom and a small black action camera on top of the nightcap hangs from the rim with a flat, tired face while the scruffy golden-brown criollo dog from the reference (thin, wiry fur, bushy eyebrows, white chest and paws), wearing only his navy bandana with a gold bone tag (no backpack) happily licks snow off the cat's face. Exactly one cat and one dog for the whole video, identical to the references; no other animals appear. The cat's whole head, nightcap and camera always in frame. The dog never speaks. No one speaks; only birds. No phone, no selfie stick, no text, no music.

Humor Galleta contra el cascabel · 8 s · Fotos: TOFFEE + GALLETA

Un cascabel rebota y Galleta lo persigue sin pensar... directo contra Toffee, que estaba posando. Humor físico fácil de entender.

Vertical 9:16, 8 seconds. Photorealistic smartphone video, normal lens (no fisheye, no vignette, no dark corners), sharp, natural colors, realistic physics. One continuous shot with no cuts. Snowy forest at day. On the left, the cream-caramel British Shorthair cat from the reference (chubby, very round face, big green eyes), wearing his navy knitted nightcap with a cream pompom and a small black action camera on top of the nightcap sits posing proudly for the camera. A small golden bell bounces across the snow from the right; the scruffy golden-brown criollo dog from the reference (thin, wiry fur, bushy eyebrows, white chest and paws), wearing only his navy bandana with a gold bone tag (no backpack) chases it with his ears flying and crashes softly into the cat; both roll in the snow and the cat ends up sitting with snow on his face, deadpan. Exactly one cat and one dog for the whole video, identical to the references; no other animals appear. The cat's whole head, nightcap and camera always in frame. The dog never speaks. Vertical 9:16, 8 seconds. Photorealistic smartphone video, normal lens (no fisheye, no vignette, no dark corners), sharp, natural colors, realistic physics. One continuous shot with no cuts. Cozy cabin at night with a fireplace. The cream-caramel British Shorthair cat from the reference (chubby, very round face, big green eyes), wearing his navy knitted nightcap with a cream pompom and a small black action camera on top of the nightcap sits holding a small long paper list, reading it very seriously, then looks into the camera over the paper. The cat says in Latin American Spanish, in a deep, slow, sleepy male voice: "Lista de los que no reciben regalo. Número uno: Galleta. Se comió el mapa." His lips move in sync with every word. Exactly one cat for the whole video, identical to the references; no other animals appear. The cat's whole head, nightcap and camera always in frame. Vertical 9:16, 8 seconds. Photorealistic smartphone video, normal lens (no fisheye, no vignette, no dark corners), sharp, natural colors, realistic physics. One continuous shot with no cuts. A dark wet alley at night, steam from the ground. Don Turbio, the raccoon from the reference (gray fur, black eye mask, striped tail), wearing an old beige trench coat with the collar up and a small brown hat, with shifty eyes leans toward the camera and slowly opens his coat, showing a small glass jar with a tiny white cloud inside. The raccoon whispers in Latin American Spanish, in a raspy, fast, whispering salesman voice: "Psst… ¿una nube en frasco? Para cuando estés triste. Original. Casi." His mouth moves in sync with every word. Exactly one raccoon for the whole video, identical to the references; no other animals appear. 8 · Cómo medir y decidir con datos

Tipo	Pregunta	Qué mirar
Episodios (historia)	¿La gente vuelve y sigue la serie?	% visto completo · seguidores nuevos por video · comentarios que hablan de la historia · vistas del episodio anterior al día siguiente
Cortos (formato B)	¿Llegamos a gente nueva?	vistas de no seguidores · compartidos por cada 1.000 vistas · visitas al perfil · seguidores ganados
Comerciales (formato C)	¿Los productos interesan?	clics al enlace (UTM) · comentarios con palabra clave (CALMA/TRINEO/ARBOLITO) · sesiones en la tienda · añadidos al carrito · ventas
Fotos	¿Refuerzan al personaje?	guardados y compartidos · visitas al perfil desde la foto

1. Se mide cada domingo, en 15 minutos, con la hoja «MEDICION-SEMANAL.csv» (una fila por publicación).
2. Se compara siempre contra el mismo tipo de contenido (episodio con episodio, corto con corto). Nunca se decide por un solo video: se buscan patrones en 3 o más.
3. Cada 2 semanas (al final de cada mitad de sección) se decide: qué formato repetir más, qué quitar y qué cambiar en la siguiente sección.
4. En TikTok y Reels, mirar el gráfico de retención: el segundo en que se va la gente dice qué toma hay que mejorar.

Cómo leer los resultados

Si pasa esto	Revisa esto
Muchas reproducciones, pocos seguidores	El video entretiene pero no explica quién es Toffee. Revisa: ¿se entiende su personalidad? ¿hay invitación a seguir la historia?
Pocas reproducciones pero muchos compartidos (frente al alcance)	No lo descartes: la idea es buena. Pruébala otra vez con un gancho más fuerte en los primeros 2 segundos.
Muchas visitas al perfil, pocos seguidores	Revisa la biografía, los videos fijados (el vlog 1 primero) y que se entienda la serie al ver el perfil.
Muchas visitas a la tienda, ninguna compra	Revisa precio, confianza, envío, tallas y el pago. No asumas que necesitas más vistas.
Pocos resultados en todo	Revisa los comienzos, la claridad de la historia y la emoción antes de subir más videos.

9 · Propósito social y donaciones verificables

1. Por ahora la web no promete ningún porcentaje (se quitó el 3 % el 27-oct y no hubo ventas).
2. Propuesta: que el programa vuelva en enero, contado dentro de la historia: en el Polo Norte Santa le entrega a Toffee una alcancía (sección 4–5) y desde ahí empieza «el marrano», ahora verificable.
3. Cómo hacerlo verificable: (1) regla simple y pública (qué % y de qué: subtotal de pedidos pagados, sin envío); (2) un reporte mensual con número de pedidos, monto apartado y monto donado; (3) comprobante de cada donación (recibo de la fundación o del rescatista, con el nombre de la fundación) publicado en Stories destacadas y en la web; (4) dinero apartado en una cuenta o bolsillo separado.
4. Mientras tanto, la misión de la historia (regalos para animales de la calle) se puede volver real a pequeña escala: el 24-dic llevar cobijas o comida a un refugio y mostrarlo (sin exagerar cifras).
5. Jay: confírmame si el 3 % vuelve en enero (como dijiste antes) o si quieres otra forma. No lo pongo en ningún video hasta que lo confirmes.

10 · Ruta hasta el 31 de diciembre

Sección	Fechas	Lugares y temas	Canciones
1	27-oct → 19-nov (14 episodios)	Valle de Octubre (Halloween, 3 cascabeles) · Día de Muertos · el mapa · Colombia · Perú · Chile · México · Nueva York (Don Turbio) · Los Ángeles (Ratoncio) · Gran Cañón · el barco de hielo	Noche del Miau · Corrido del Chupacabras · Cumbia del Willys
2	21-nov → 14-dic	El barco de hielo y quién lo maneja · Acción de Gracias (26-nov) con el pavo Tomás · Black Friday (28-nov) · 1-dic: Toffee le hace la «funa» a Santa · Velitas (7-dic) · Canadá y las auroras · superhéroe incompetente y explorador perdido	No Me Coman · Santa, Te Vamos a Funar
3	15-dic → 31-dic	Llegada al Polo Norte · el taller atendido por animales · Santa lee la lista (los nombres del público) · le entrega a Toffee la alcancía · 24-dic: entrega real de regalos · 31-dic: pólvora y año viejo	Villancico de la Calle

¿Y Mickey Mouse? La versión de 1928 («Steamboat Willie») ya es de dominio público, pero Disney sigue siendo dueño de la marca Mickey y de todos sus diseños posteriores, y Google Flow bloquea los prompts de Disney. Usarlo arriesga la cuenta que vende. Mejor el chiste de Hollywood: Toffee hace fila horas para tomarse una foto con «el ratón más famoso del mundo» y resulta ser un ratón callejero con un disfraz barato que cobra la foto. Es más gracioso, es nuestro y nadie nos lo puede bajar.

🎵 La Noche del Miau ✅ HECHA

Para: Episodio 4 (31-oct, Halloween), corto de la semana 1 y sonido de TikTok

Canción de fiesta pegajosa para que la gente la use en sus videos de Halloween.

🎵 El Corrido del Chupacabras Hacer antes del 2-nov

Para: Episodio 5 (2-nov, Chupacabras) de fondo en la búsqueda

Los corridos tumbados están de moda en México. El chiste: un corrido de «malandro» para un cachorrito que tiembla de miedo. Contraste = risa y compartidos en México.

Funny Mexican corrido tumbado parody, acoustic requinto guitar, tololoche bass, trumpets, male singer with a slightly raspy cool voice, Latin American Spanish, 1 minute. Use these exact lyrics:

[Intro]
Puro Valle de Octubre, compa…

[Verso 1]
Dicen que en el pantano hay un monstruo feroz, que se chupa las cabras y te roba la voz.
Llegué con mi gorrito, mi cámara y mi perro,
y era un cachorrito temblando en el cerro.

[Coro]
Ay, Chupacabras, no eres tan malo,
tú solo querías tener un regalo.
Tiemblas de frío, no muerdes a nadie,
puro corazón, compa, puro detalle.

[Verso 2]
Le dicen el terror de todito el lugar, pero se esconde si lo miras al pasar.
Se robó un cascabel pa' tener algo suyo,
y lo devolvió solito… ¡qué orgullo!

[Coro]
Ay, Chupacabras, no eres tan malo,
tú solo querías tener un regalo.
Tiemblas de frío, no muerdes a nadie,
puro corazón, compa, puro detalle.
```

🎵 La Cumbia del Willys Hacer antes del 4-nov

Para: Episodio 7 (5-nov, Willys en Salento)

Orgullo colombiano: Willys, palmas de cera y cumbia. Galleta manejando sin saber. Es para que los colombianos la compartan.

Happy Colombian cumbia with accordion, gaita flutes, guacharaca and tambora drums, festive group vocals, funny, Latin American Spanish, 1 minute. Use these exact lyrics:

[Verso 1]
Llegamos a Salento con el mapa encendido, palmas de cera altas tocando el cielo dormido.
Galleta dijo: «tranquilo, yo manejo»,
y ahí empezó la cumbia… ¡la cumbia del Willys, viejo!

[Coro]
Pa' la derecha, pa' la izquierda, ¡freno, Galleta!
El Willys baila solo por la carretera.
Pa' arriba, pa' abajo, que se sale la maleta,
¡esta es la cumbia, la cumbia de Galleta!

[Verso 2]
Un perrito abuelito dormía en la acera, le dimos su cobija pa' que no tuviera ojera.
En Navidad volvemos, eso es palabra,
Colombia tiene el corazón más grande que su montaña.

[Coro]
Pa' la derecha, pa' la izquierda, ¡freno, Galleta!
El Willys baila solo por la carretera.
Pa' arriba, pa' abajo, que se sale la maleta,
¡esta es la cumbia, la cumbia de Galleta!

🎵 No Me Coman (la canción del pavo) Para la sección 3 (Acción de Gracias, 26-nov)

Para: Vlog de Estados Unidos en Acción de Gracias

Estados Unidos: un pavo que se escapa de la cena y le pide asilo al trineo. Humor negro suave, muy compartible, y mezcla español con inglés para el público gringo.

Funny country trap song, banjo and hard 808 beat, dramatic male singer with a nervous voice, choir shouting the chorus, Spanish with a few English words, 1 minute. Use these exact lyrics:

[Verso 1]
Me llamo Tomás y vengo de Ohio,
me engordaron todo el año, ¡qué lío, qué lío!
Jueves de noviembre, la mesa servida,
y adivina, compadre, quién es la comida.

[Coro]
No me coman, no me coman,
cómanse un tamal, cómanse una dona.
Soy un pavo con sueños de cantar,
¡denme asilo en el trineo, me quiero escapar!

[Verso 2]
Toffee me dijo: «súbete, compañero»,
Galleta me hizo espacio en el trineo.
Ahora vuelo libre por todo el cielo,
este Thanksgiving lo paso sin miedo.

[Coro]
No me coman, no me coman,
cómanse un tamal, cómanse una dona.
Soy un pavo con sueños de cantar,
¡denme asilo en el trineo, me quiero escapar!

[Final]
Happy Thanksgiving… ¡pero sin mí!

🎵 Santa, Te Vamos a Funar Para la sección 3 (lanzar el 1-dic)

Para: Video propio + vlog de llegada al Polo Norte. Es la canción POLÉMICA

La canción «funable» que pediste: Toffee le hace una «funa» (diss track) a Santa por nunca traerle regalos a los animales de la calle. Polémica pero sana: se mete con un personaje inventado, no con personas reales, y en el fondo defiende a los animales. Al final hay un giro de risa. Ideal para generar debate en comentarios («¿Santa tiene la culpa?»).

Funny trap diss track, hard 808 beat with sleigh bells, confident comedic rapper with attitude, kids choir shouting 'funar' in the chorus, Latin American Spanish, 1 minute. Use these exact lyrics:

[Intro]
Ey, Santa… tenemos que hablar.

[Verso 1]
Llevas siglos repartiendo y a la calle no llegaste, el perrito de la esquina pregunta qué le dejaste.
Mucha leche, galletita, mucho «jo, jo, jo»,
pero al gato del mercado nadie nunca le escribió.

[Coro]
Santa, te vamos a funar (¡funar!),
con todo y trineo te vamos a funar (¡funar!).
Si no hay regalo pa' los de la calle,
no hay Navidad, Santa, no hay detalle.

[Verso 2]
Yo no vine a pelear, yo traigo una lista,
Galleta trae las firmas y una cara de artista.
Cinco cascabeles, un mapa y una cama,
y si no nos haces caso, te cantamos en pijama.

[Coro]
Santa, te vamos a funar (¡funar!),
con todo y trineo te vamos a funar (¡funar!).
Si no hay regalo pa' los de la calle,
no hay Navidad, Santa, no hay detalle.

[Final]
Bueno, Santa… si nos das los regalos, borramos la canción.

🎵 Villancico de la Calle Para la sección 5 (24-dic)

Para: Vlog de la entrega de regalos, el más emotivo

El cierre con corazón: la Nochebuena de los animales de la calle. Para que la gente llore un poquito y comparta.

Warm acoustic Christmas lullaby, soft guitar, celesta and sleigh bells, gentle male voice and a children's choir, emotional, Latin American Spanish, 1 minute. Use these exact lyrics:

[Verso 1]
Esta noche hay un perrito mirando hacia el cielo,
esperando una estrella que le traiga consuelo.
Un gato en el tejado, un burrito en el frío,
y un trineo que es cama cruzando el río.

[Coro]
Que nadie se quede sin su regalo,
ni el gato del techo, ni el perro del barrio.
Que esta Navidad llegue a todos los rincones,
con cobijas, galletas y muchos corazones.

[Verso 2]
Toffee lleva la lista, Galleta lleva el mapa,
cada luz que brillaba hoy ya no se escapa.

[Coro]
Que nadie se quede sin su regalo,
ni el gato del techo, ni el perro del barrio.
Que esta Navidad llegue a todos los rincones,
con cobijas, galletas y muchos corazones.
